SAC Hood at Los Angeles telephonically advised that he believes there is a possibility that we may be able to make a White Slave case against Bugs Siegel and Virginia Hill. He states they have been making social calls at a place known as the Mission Motel and contacting women there who appear to be prostitutes. Mr. Hood is going to continue the investigation of this phase of Siegel's activities and will utilize in connection with this coverage the three Agents who at the same time will be conducting the overall general "crime survey" in the Los Angeles area. I told Mr. Hood that it would be satisfactory to continue this phase of the coverage of Bugs Siegel for a period not to exceed thirty days, but at the end of the thirty days the matter is to be carefully reviewed to determine if we have sufficient evidence of a Federal violation to justify continuation of the inquiries. I also told Mr. Hood about the desirability of the Salt Lake City office keeping in touch [redacted] Hood will discuss this matter with Mr. Newman.

Ray Figure, Crime Syndicate, Los Angeles, California

The following was dictated by Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted]

As previously reported, JACK DRAGNA, his wife FRANCES and two children FRANK and ANNA reside at 5827 Hubert Avenue, Los Angeles, from which address DRAGNA appears to conduct practically all of his business transactions. Inquiry to date has failed to disclose that he maintains any office or other establishment for the conduct of his personal business. With reference to the DRAGNA family, investigation discloses that JACK DRAGNA has the brothers residing in Los Angeles. TOM DRAGNA and EDDIE DRAGNA.

Aside from his relatives, DRAGHA's most frequent contact is probably with [REDACTED] acts as a leg man and is believed to operate as a bodyguard for DRAGNA when occasion arises. Last summer at the Hollywood Park Race Track DRAGNA was approached by officers of the track for the purpose of examining his ticket. It was noted that who had accompanied DRAGNA, became offensive and tough.

left Los Angeles about July 29, 1946 for the East. He returned on September 2, 1946 with his wife, daughter and son, and in his conversation with relatives and friends disclosed that ostensibly the trip was purely a pleasure trip made to New York City for the purpose of visiting friends and relatives there.

[REDACTED] states that [REDACTED] is "one of those guys who knows everybody" in Hollywood.

In discussing whether or not a new bar was being opened on the Strip, the informant recalled that [REDACTED] is opening a restaurant to be called the Chanticleer located near the [REDACTED]. On September 5, 1946 Agent [REDACTED] discussed with [REDACTED] the opening of any new restaurant and [REDACTED] stated that he would attempt to find out what new places are opening and who was backing them.

[REDACTED] stated that on the same day (September 8, 1946) an unknown party contacted DRAGNA relative to "joints" which were for sale, and in this connection the party suggested that DRAGNA contact [REDACTED] BEN SIEGEL's lieutenant, regarding the purchase of the House of Murphy, a popular cafe and bar located at 410 South San Vicente Boulevard, Los Angeles, which is frequented by movie celebrities and prominent underworld characters. DRAGNA contacted [REDACTED] who later reported that [REDACTED] had stated that although he is in poor health he has no desire to sell his cafe unless he can secure a price which would enable him to retire. [REDACTED] stated that he would sell the place for $400,000, but when [REDACTED] advised DRAGNA of the amount of money [REDACTED] was asking, DRAGNA stated that the price was exorbitant and he would not even consider paying that amount of money for the House of Murphy. In this connection, it should be noted that according to [REDACTED] DRAGNA and friends of his have been making extensive inquiries in an effort ██████████ called DRAGNA earlier. JACK had received any word about the House of Murphy. JACK informed ██████████ that the price asked was $400,000 and that was out of the question. ██████████ informed JACK that he had found a place in Palm Springs and wanted to discuss this with JACK.

Continuing this ██████████ stated that ██████████ will operate as a front for DRAGNA in the local Trans-American set-up, was talking with DRAGNA recently with regard to the scratch sheets which DRAGNA had received from Chicago. DRAGNA advised ██████████ that he had the sheets and would send them over to ██████████ which ostensibly is a picture framing business, behind which the scratch sheet and local Trans-American operations are functioning. During this meeting ██████████ informed DRAGNA that he had talked with ██████████ at Chicago, over the telephone on September 4, 1946 and that ██████████ had put ██████████ on the phone. According to ██████████ he got "what he could" from ██████████ who stated that he was going to New York City, but when he returned to Chicago, ██████████ was coming to Los Angeles, which would be in about ten days. ██████████ also advised DRAGNA that Chicago had wired him regarding a telegraph operator residing in San Diego, California who might make a good man for the Los Angeles Trans-American set-up.

Further information was secured to the effect that DRAGNA was recently contacted by ██████████ an investigator for the Food and Drug Division of the California State Department of Health, that ██████████ wanted to talk with DRAGNA regarding some olive oil which DRAGNA apparently had sold to EDDIE DRAGNA. DRAGNA told ██████████ that he had no olive oil; whereupon, ██████████ replied that he wanted to check DRAGNA's invoices covering past transactions in the olive oil business and agreed to examine the invoices at DRAGNA's home.

On September 4, 1946 ██████████ advised that one ██████████ made arrangements with DRAGNA to talk to him concerning the matter of the escrow on JACK's house and they agreed to meet at 10 a.m. Saturday, September 7, 1946, at ██████████ to discuss the matter. On September 7, 1946 Special Agents ██████████ maintained a surveillance of the residence of ██████████ and JACK DRAGNA, 3927 Hubert Avenue. Surveilling agents observed that at approximately 10 a.m. JACK DRAGNA drove from his house to ██████████ house in his 1940 two-tone Isabelle coupe, parked this car in [redacted] driveway and then got into another car parked in front of the house, where he held a conversation lasting about 15 or 20 minutes with another man. This car was ascertained to be registered to [redacted]

After the conversation mentioned above, DRAGNA got out of [redacted] car and went into [redacted] house and [redacted] drove away. Also observed at the [redacted] residence at that time was another automobile, which was ascertained belonged to [redacted]. It is believed this individual is the [redacted] previously mentioned by [redacted]

Surveilling agents also observed parking in the vicinity of the [redacted] residence two 1946 automobiles bearing Michigan License Plates. These cars were a 1946 Black Buick Sedan, Michigan License B P 7225 and a 1946 Black Ford Tudor Sedan, Michigan License B G 8009. By teletype the Detroit Office advised the Los Angeles Field Division that Michigan License B P 7225 is issued for a Buick Sedan registered to [redacted]

The Detroit Office further advised that [redacted] was a known associate of one [redacted] key figure in the Detroit Area in the Capra Case. In this respect reference is made to Detroit letter to the Los Angeles Field Division dated September 20, 1946 calling attention to the fact that the Los Angeles Office had requested the registration of Michigan License B P 7235. It is believed this is in error and the correct license for the Buick sedan is B P 7225.

Michigan License B G 8009. It was ascertained by the Detroit Field Division, is registered to [redacted] b2

Later information was secured to the effect that according to [redacted] "the boys" arranged a meeting at his place of business at 1 p.m. on September 9, 1946; that [redacted] wanted DRAGNA to attend as he "represents the money"; and, that at this meeting the whole local Trans-American set-up including salaries would be discussed. Incidentally, on this occasion [redacted] stated that certain individuals including [redacted] the local publisher of a disreputable scandal sheet, were doing too much talking about the new Trans-American set-up. DRAGNA reportedly assured [redacted] that he could take care of [redacted]. This meeting was later changed to occur at [redacted] at 9:30 a.m. on September 10, 1946. On September 10, 1946 a physical surveillance was [redacted] b7c

[redacted] At the time the surveillance was conducted, it was observed that a 1938 Plymouth Four Door Sedan was parked in front of [redacted] This car, bearing 1946 California License 4 B 2846, was observed as being to [redacted]

Surveilling Agents had previously observed this car parked in front of the Oliver Products Company, 5166 Hollywood Boulevard, and it is believed that [redacted] is the individual referred to [redacted] by members of the Trans-American set-up in Los Angeles. At approximately 10:30 a.m., JACK DRAGNA arrived at the [redacted] residence in his 1940 two-tone LaSalle Coupe and entered [redacted] home. At approximately 12:30 p.m., another individual drove up to the [redacted] residence in a 1940 Buick, 1946 California License 17 B 498, and entered [redacted] home. It was ascertained that this car is registered to [redacted]

The conference taking place in [redacted] residence continued until approximately 2 p.m. when [redacted] and DRAGNA were observed to leave. They stood on the street in front of [redacted] residence talking together for nearly 40 minutes, then entered their respective automobiles and drove away.

[redacted] further stated that on Sunday (September 8, 1946) [redacted] mentioned above, informed DRAGNA that [redacted] had just returned to Los Angeles from San Francisco, but that BENNY "BUGS" SIEGEL would not return to Los Angeles until the following day as the C.P.A. hearing to determine whether a freeze order should be imposed on the construction of SIEGEL's Flamingo Hotel in Las Vegas had been continued. [redacted] also stated he discussed a certain Italian Cafe located in Las Vegas with SIEGEL and [redacted] and that he [redacted] was of the opinion that the place afforded an excellent opportunity provided it was properly managed. [redacted] made tentative plans with DRAGNA to go to Las Vegas to look over this place on the following Wednesday, provided DRAGNA returned from his trip to San Diego by that time. However, [redacted] later advised DRAGNA that SIEGEL did not like the place in Las Vegas, in fact, does not like any place which does not have hotel accommodations in connection with the cafe. DRAGNA informed [redacted] that he recalled this particular cafe in Las Vegas and felt that the ceilings were too low to be comfortable for patrons.

On September 11, 1946 DRAGNA talked with BEN SIEGEL, at which time SIEGEL wanted to know how the wire service was coming along in Los Angeles, stating that he had met [redacted] twice since a certain day. DRAGNA replied that they were coming out on the 25th and that his outfit (Trans-American) had a scratch sheet. When DRAGNA inquired concerning the Las Vegas Wire situation, SIEGEL replied that he was waiting for them to install the wire; that they had been stalling, but that SIEGEL had talked to let him talk with you later in a rather formal manner.

[redacted] informed that [redacted] who according to other sources of information reportedly collects protection money [redacted] advised DRAGNA that his [redacted] connections were [redacted] concerning the new set-up which would operate locally and that [redacted] wanted to know if he should disclose the fact that DRAGNA was connected with the new set-up. DRAGNA advised [redacted] to merely tell them that he was interested. [redacted] then assured DRAGNA that there was not anything he would not do for DRAGNA.

[redacted] In connection with [redacted] it is significant to note that on September 8, 1946 [redacted] telephoned JACK DRAGNA and engaged at first in a rather formal conversation as if [redacted] and JACK had not seen each other for some length of time. During this conversation [redacted] told DRAGNA that [redacted] had been "shooting off his mouth" about new people moving into things here.

[redacted] JACK DRAGNA told [redacted] that "he would take care of [redacted] then stated to JACK that the people "with whom I am connected, you know who that is don't you" were asking who the new people would be and [redacted] wanted to know what he should say in that spot. JACK told [redacted] "I can't be in the front on it, but you can tell them that I am interested in it". [redacted] then gave JACK his telephone number, [redacted] and told JACK that he should call him any time that "there ain't nothing I won't do for you".

[redacted] in discussing Trans-American setting itself up in Los Angeles has pointed out that while the City of Los Angeles is closed as far as gambling is concerned the County has some "joints" in operation. These allegedly are paying off [redacted] In order to find out what bookmakers are operating Trans-American would attempt [redacted] to learn the identity of the bookmakers and then approach these characters to attempt to persuade them to take the new service.

In the report entitled "General Crime Survey, Los Angeles Field Division" dated April 15, 1946 it appears that, according to Confidential Sources of Information the largest contributors of "juice" locally were [REDACTED] advised that recently DRAGNA contacted the ANTHONY MILANO family of Cleveland, Ohio, who are presently residing at 9451 Sunset Boulevard, Beverly Hills, California. However, judging from this conversation the relationship between DRAGNA and the Beverly Hills MILANOS appears informal and personal and does not indicate that they are intimate or involved in business dealings. Mrs. MILANO complained that they had not seen or heard from DRAGNA; that she was very anxious to see him while they were in California, mentioning the fact that she had not met Mrs. DRAGNA and was anxious to do so. DRAGNA assured her that both he and Mrs. DRAGNA would drop by and visit the MILANOS at the first opportunity.

Also on September 11, 1946 [REDACTED] advised that one [REDACTED] (Phonetic) contacted JACK DRAGNA stating that he was from Cleveland, that his father was a friend of the MILANOS and that his [REDACTED] father desired to see JACK.

[REDACTED] DRAGNA suggested that they meet that morning at 10:30 a.m. at CARL's Drive-In, Crenshaw and Vernon, and JACK advised that he would be driving a LaSalle two-tone automobile.

A physical surveillance of CARL's Drive-In was undertaken by Special Agents [REDACTED] and the surveilling agents observed that at 10:30 a.m. DRAGNA drove up in his LaSalle and met two men who were driving a Plymouth Sedan Bearing Ohio license MX 705. DRAGNA conversed with these two men in his, DRAGNA's, car for about one-half hour, after which the two men returned to their Plymouth and drove away. DRAGNA then returned to his residence. The men in the Plymouth were described as follows:

Number 1 (Driver):

Age	Approximately 30 to 35
Height	5' 10" to 6'
Weight	165
Hair	Dark
Complexion	Dark

Number 2:

Age	55 to 60
Height	6'
Complexion	Dark
Hair	Gray

by teletype dated September 12, 1946 the Cincinnati Field Division advised that Ohio license number XX 706 is registered to [redacted] and was issued for a 1940 Plymouth coach. Later in the day in the conversation between DRAGNA and Mrs. MILANO, referred to above, Mrs. MILANO asked DRAGNA if that fellow from Cleveland had gotten in touch with him and it is believed that this conversation refers to [redacted]

According to [redacted] on September 12, 1946 DRAGNA talked to [redacted] in San Diego, [redacted] is a known friend and business associate of JACK DRAGNA. At this time DRAGNA asked [redacted] if he knew one [redacted] (phonetic) from Perris, California. [redacted] advised JACK that he knew him. During the conversation reference was made to the sum of $2,000 and it is believed this sum related to this sum which [redacted] owed some one and which JACK DRAGNA was trying to collect through [redacted] apparently for the individuals from Cleveland, [redacted] and his father. On September 20, 1946 [redacted] talked to DRAGNA and asked if there was anything new on the deal. JACK said yes that he had spoken to some one [redacted] was going to see the man [redacted]

On September 11, 1946 JACK DRAGNA attempted to call [redacted] [redacted] On this same date, JACK DRAGNA attempted to contact a [redacted] (Phonetic) [redacted] but was unable to reach him. It is believed that the party who contacted DRAGNA on September 13, 1946 regarding some one on parole was [redacted] He stated that he had tried to talk to an attorney, [redacted] regarding this matter. He desired to see JACK but an appointment could not be made for that day because of DRAGNA's previous plans to go to San Diego so the matter was left in [redacted] On September 20, 1946 DRAGNA contacted [redacted] and said that he would come over to visit [redacted] at the latter's residence. A surveillance of the [redacted] residence by Agents [redacted] reflected that DRAGNA, accompanied by his nephew LOUIS DRAGNA, who was driving the car, drove to the [redacted] residence at approximately 11 a.m. and JACK went into the house. No other persons were observed entering or leaving the [redacted] residence.

Upon learning that DRAGNA had a matter pending before the Alcohol Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue, Agent WILLIAM P. JONES contacted [redacted] who made available the file on the DRAGNA matter. This file reflected that in 1934 DRAGNA and 61 other defendants were convicted of failing to pay Federal Excise Tax on alcohol produced in a distillery they were operating and a lien was entered in favor of the Government against these defendants in the amount of approximately $450,000, and that up until [redacted]

On September 12, 1946 a spot surveillance of the DRAGNA residence by Agents [redacted] reflected that DRAGNA left his residence and drove to the Pico Club, 2051 West Pico Boulevard, a night club and bar which was in the process of being remodeled or redecorated, and which bears a sign indicating it was to open on Friday, September 20, 1946. DRAGNA remained in the Pico Club for a number of hours and when the surveillance was discontinued at 5:30 p.m. he was still in the Pico Club.

A physical surveillance was established at the DRAGNA residence by Special Agents [redacted] at 9:30 a.m. September 13, 1946, at which time it was ascertained DRAGNA left his home in his 1940 two-tone coupe and drove to the residence of his brother TOM, where JACK's nephew LOUIS joined him. LOUIS drove JACK's car and they proceeded out of the city of Los Angeles on U.S. Highway 1 to Del Mar, California. They made no stops on the way until they arrived at Del Mar. They arrived at the Del Mar Hotel at about 12:30 p.m., parked their car in the parking area in front of the Del Mar Hotel and entered the dining room. There they took a table and had lunch. During this time they were not joined by anyone. At about 1:30 p.m. they left the Dining Room and went into the lobby where they spoke briefly to an unidentified individual. They then re-entered their car and drove to the Del Mar Race Track, parked the car and entered the race track stands. During the remainder of the afternoon surveillance by Agents [redacted] and the agents from the San Diego Office reflected that JACK DRAGNA and his nephew LOUIS sat in a clubhouse box and left it only to place wagers and cash tickets. It was ascertained that the box bore the name plate [redacted]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] JACK and LOUIS remained in this box until the completion of the day's racing when they re-entered their car, left the race truck and drove in the direction of San Diego. At this point the surveillance was turned over to Agents of the San Diego Field Division.

[REDACTED] advised on September 17, 1946 that JACK DRAGNA contacted a party whom he addressed as [REDACTED] for tickets to the fights, but that [REDACTED] told DRAGNA he was using his allotment of tickets as he was taking [REDACTED] of New York City to the fights. On hearing this DRAGNA remarked, "If they are friends of COSTELLO, they are friends of mine". Informant further disclosed that DRAGNA is not only attempting to purchase cafes and night clubs in Los Angeles and Las Vegas, but is also interested in the bar and cafe located in the Maryland Hotel in San Diego, which he stated could be purchased for $25,000. In describing the location of the Maryland Bar, DRAGNA mentioned that it was not far from his place on 3rd Street.

On September 17, 1946 DRAGNA discussed the finances of the local wire service with an individual by the name of [REDACTED] whose true identity has not yet been established. During this conversation, DRAGNA mentioned that he had invested $5,000 in the wire service and that he wanted to know how much money had been expended. In the conversation, it definitely appeared that [REDACTED] was handling DRAGNA's money in connection with this venture. [REDACTED] advised DRAGNA that everything that had been expended appears on the stubs with the exception of the "under-the-table stuff", involving $25, $35 and $50 to phone men for telephones and that with regard to this expenditure DRAGNA would have to believe that the individuals received the money. [REDACTED] advised DRAGNA that every phone sent was installed required a $100.00 deposit and when DRAGNA asked how many had been installed FREDDIE replied that ten had already been placed and that he had just put down deposits on a couple of more phones on Vermont Avenue, which represents a total of $1200 in deposits for 12 phones. [REDACTED] advised DRAGNA it would probably be a couple of weeks before DRAGNA could get started, to which DRAGNA replied that they intended to start on the 30th and that [REDACTED] was to take out as much salary as the other guy takes out and DRAGNA would straighten the matter up with him later, indicating that [REDACTED] would start out at $50.00.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

On September 3, 1946 a 1946 Ford Tudor Sedan bearing Michigan License BG 82-37 was observed in front of the residence of JACK DRAGNA. The Detroit Field Office was requested by latter to furnish the name of the registered owner of this car.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Spot surveillance on the premises of JACK DRAGNA disclosed that a 1942 Buick Sedan two-tone beige and gray, bearing 1946 Michigan License 90 2087, was parked in front of the DRAGNA residence. However, information was received from the Detroit Office to the effect that there was no Michigan prefix "C.S."

On August 27, 1946 [REDACTED] called this office in a somewhat drunken condition. He said that he had ascertained that [REDACTED] had opened a wire service in the Ferguson Building at Third and Hill.

[REDACTED]

The following results were obtained from a mail cover placed on the residence of JACK DRAGNA:

DATE	ADDRESSEE	SENDER

TRANS-AMERICAN AND WEST COAST NEWS COMPANY ACTIVITIES

Recent visits to the Ferguson Building, 907 South Hill, Los Angeles, where the West Coast News Service presently occupies Rooms 604 and 606, disclosed no visible activity, although a ticker in operation was heard in the West Coast News offices.

[REDACTED]

On September 12, 1946 Special Agent [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] interviewed [REDACTED]

who said that the Darby Post Control which is located on Wende Boulevard is situated next door to a large white stucco residence which will be some sort of outlet for Trans-American. The telephone company is presently installing heavy cable into the residence at this spot.

[REDACTED]

20101

Investigation conducted in the vicinity of the Derby Post Control, Main Highway and South Hobart reflected that there was a large white stucco home located just east to the Derby Post Control at 1045 South Hobart.

[REDACTED]

The investigating agents also ascertained that a 1933 Pontiac was parked in front of the residence at 1045 South Hobart, bearing California license 80 T 951.

The indices of the Los Angeles Field Division are negative.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] contacted JACK DRAGMA on September 20th regarding the purchase of a linotype machine to be used in connection with the scratch sheet and new wire service, stating that it would cost approximately $1400.00. They agreed that it would be worth while to purchase this piece of equipment because without it they could not get their sheets printed rapidly enough for their customers. [REDACTED] indicated to JACK that he had given the phone number to a few people and they were calling in for face results, but at the present time they were not selling the service.

[redacted] apparently handled most of the arrangements regarding whiskey and much of the bonded whiskey is obtained from [redacted]

[redacted] advised that he would be able to obtain 2000 cases of white Horse Whiskey and 2000 cases of Canadian Club Whiskey and he had the deal practically sewed up. However, no definite deal was made between [redacted] on that date. [redacted] has been in contact with [redacted] on several occasions during the last month and it is believed that these contacts were regarding some [redacted] henchmen who have been checked by the Police for various reasons. It is also possible that some of these contacts [redacted] were regarding a raid made by the Los Angeles Police Department on [redacted] Club on the night of September 5, 1946. At that time [redacted] Club was searched by the Los Angeles Police and all of the individuals who were there at the time the place was raided were questioned by the Police. [redacted] stated further that [redacted] were already out there and that they were opening tomorrow. [redacted] further advised that there was no phone in the "joint", but that there was a phone next door so they were going to take a fellow along who would move the instrument into the "joint". [redacted] agreed to meet them at the "joint" on that date. It is believed that the reference to "the joint" made above, referred to [redacted] which was re-opened as a gambling "joint" on September 17, 1946.

During the last month [redacted] has contacted [redacted] and others of the MILANO family at their residence on Sunset Boulevard in Beverly Hills, but all of these contacts have been social in nature and there is no indication that [redacted] has business connections of any kind with any of the MILANOS.

On September 12, 1946 [redacted] benchmen, in a discussion with an individual known only as [redacted] if "he had called these joints for bullets?" [redacted] advised [redacted] that he had not done so and the informants were unable to furnish any further information regarding this matter.

According to the informants, [redacted] attempted on September 18, 1946 to contact [redacted] Informants advised on that date that [redacted]

Dear Sir:

For the information of the Bureau and the other offices to whom copies of this letter are being forwarded, [REDACTED] has advised Special Agent [REDACTED] SIEGEL returned to Las Vegas, Nevada from New York City on a TWA flight from Albuquerque, New Mexico on October 22, 1946 and retired immediately to his room, which is room 412, Hotel Last Frontier, Las Vegas.

[REDACTED] SIEGEL said that he has realized the trouble he has been having with the F.B.I.; that during his stay in New York City he learned that MEYER LANSKY'S and ABE ZWILLMAN'S, with alias "LONGY" (New Jersey hoodlum) telephones are tapped and that every word SIEGEL and his friends made were under the constant watch of the F.B.I. SIEGEL said, "They woke me up in the morning and put me to bed at night."

SIEGEL also stated that he talked with [REDACTED] of the Del E. Webb Construction Company while he was in New York, and [REDACTED] introduced SIEGEL to JOHN R. SMALL, Civilian Production Administrator. SMALL has not issued the cease-work order on the Flaminge Hotel as yet, which cease-work order was mentioned by radio commentator and newspaper columnist DREW PEARSON on the latter's Sunday broadcast about three weeks ago, and in deference to which the Bureau withheld any open and active investigation. SIEGEL claimed that SMALL told [REDACTED] SIEGEL that he cannot take any action to actually assist them on the hotel job until someone "gets PEARSON off SMALL'S BACK".

[REDACTED] b7D

[REDACTED] b7D

SIEGEL plans to open the casino part of the hotel on December 26, 1946, and have as his entertainment XAVIER CUGAT'S orchestra, JIMMY DURANTE, and FRANK SINATRA. He expects to pay approximately $50,000.00 for this entertainment for one week.

In connection with the financing of the Flamingo Hotel, the following information was developed through [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has been previously mentioned as being one of the attorneys who went to San Francisco, California to assist in representing SIEGEL's organization in connection with the C.F.A. hearings.

The following information was obtained by Special Agent (A) [REDACTED]

On September 24, 1946, [redacted] advised that [redacted] was in contact with BEN SIEGEL and stated he had spoken to [redacted] in New York. [redacted] stated "that department decided to drop the thing....they won't do anything about it". He further remarked that "I guess they have to clear with that other department in everything they do". This is believed to refer to the R.P.C. and SIEGEL's plan to obtain a loan from the R.P.C. for the Hotel. Referring to "that other department" is thought to mean the Department of Justice. [redacted] remarked that [redacted] would be in Philadelphia if BEN wanted to get in touch with him.

On September 30, 1946, [redacted] reported that SIEGEL had gotten in touch with [redacted] at the Las Vegas Club, Las Vegas, at which time BEN stated he wanted him to send all the plans, statements and everything to his place in New York City. The address was furnished as 86 Central Park West, Apartment 31, New York City. BEN wanted these plans sent by air mail special delivery. SIEGEL told [redacted] that he wanted [redacted] to hold

On September 20, 1946, this same source reported that ...

It appeared that BEN was to advise as to the type and size beer bottle desired and BEN appeared to understand what the particular situation was about but he was not able to determine ... as to whom he should advise as to the desired type bottle of beer. It was thought that the above incident related to a previous contact had between SIEGEL and LANSKY set forth in the report of Special Agent ... dated August 20, 1946 on Page to send ... a carload of beer.

Further, LANSKY was interested in knowing what the beer was for and BEN stated he wanted to send it to ... and for ... to send it "to them". The reference "to them" was thought to be "follows on the commission" and probably referred to the City Commissioners at Las Vegas.
SIEGEL indicated he was leaving Thursday, October 3rd for New York City.

On October 4, 1944, it was ascertained that RINGEL left on American Airlines Flight 120 for New York City at 10:30 a.m. The New York Field Office was advised as to RINGEL's departure and requesting they advise the division of activities in New York City.

On October 4, 1944, it was ascertained through the American Airlines plane had developed engine trouble and he was forced to return to Los Angeles and intended to leave for New York at 4 p.m. on October 4, 1944. It was ascertained through the American Airlines that RINGEL's name appeared on the manifest for Flight 120, departing at 4 p.m. by surveillance Special Agents. [redacted] verified the departure of RINGEL on the above flight and New York was telephonically advised of RINGEL's change in plans and that he would arrive in New York City at 9:30 a.m. October 5, 1944.

Information from Sergeant BLANDER, Lynwood Police Department, that a State permit was issued to him to carry a .38 caliber Smith and Wesson, 150092, on July 2, 1943 and the reason given was "personal property protection". His address was shown as above and his business address was given as Houston Company, 644 Main Street, Hollywood and General Service Studios, 11801 West Olympic Boulevard, Los Angeles.

An examination of the Los Angeles Field Division files reflects the following reference to one SIDNEY UNGER. In the case entitled: "PACIFIC COAST BANK SWEEPSTAKE, JOHN ALONIOUS O'BRIEN, et al. In the report of Special Agent JOSEPH R. MILANEY, dated December 17, 1945 on Page 114 attention was directed to the case entitled BENJAMIN LAWRENCE, et al. WOODWARD PUTMAN, National Bank of Detroit, Detroit Savings Bank, Detroit, Michigan, NATIONAL BANK ACT, NATIONAL STOLEN PROPERTY ACT, wherein it was stated that about $9,000 of home owners loan corporation bonds were stolen on May 16, 1934 and $16,000 of the same type of bonds were stolen from the Detroit Savings Bank December 1, 1934. The bonds were negotiated in New York by BENJAMIN LAWRENCE and SIDNEY UNGER, New York Ed. No. 3-129452, who was arrested by the New York Police in connection with that matter on November 4, 1934. UNGER in 1935 resided at 2850 Grand Concourse, New York. LAWRENCE committed suicide several years ago. The last address for SIDNEY UNGER was reported as the Fifth Avenue Hotel in New York City in September 1937, where he was living with his mother and sister. It was reported that it appeared that LAWRENCE and UNGER had obtained the bonds from AL DITCH and HARRY "SPUNKY" DIAMOND, suspected security dealers, who are part of the "CHAMP" SEGAL crowd. UNGER's original name was reported as UNGERLEIDER and he was related to the UNGERLEIDERS of UNGERLEIDER AND COMPANY. It was noted that part of the loot from the same bonds which LAWRENCE and UNGER handled was also handled by ABRAHAM GREENFELD of Baltimore, who is a contact of AL SPITZER.

The following information was obtained by Special Agent DON EDWIN RANEY at the California Shipyards, Wilmington, California. An examination of the employment records at the above company reflected that SIDNEY J. UNGER, 6548 West Olympic Boulevard, was employed from May 1, 1942 through May 23, 1942 as a pipe fitters helper. Social Security Number 055-03-7080, UNGER was born August 16, 1894 at New York City. His wife's name was YERA WHITE. His education was given as Public School 147, Brooklyn, New York. UNGER in 1933 changed his name from UNGERLEIDER to UNGER. He stated he had one year and three months in the U.S. Army prior to 1942. The exact dates were not known. Previous employment was shown as 1931 to 1935 in shoe business for himself at New York City. 1935 to 1937 tailor business at 8671 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California. 1939-1941 salesman for the Fine Chemical Company, 414 South La Brea, Los Angeles. It was indicated that this company was not in business at the time he was employed at Calship. The file indicated that UNGER was considered unfitted for the job of pipe fitters helper.
